

EAT THIS

After a road trip of nearly 4.500 miles and having visited 40 BBQ joints in the States, we knew it for sure: this is it! The smell, the taste and most of all, the experience we had in several authentic restaurants of the American BBQ belt ... We had to take it with us! And so Black Smoke became the next step in our adventure. We would blend all the recently discovered American BBQ traditions with local culinary influences for a rock-your-socks-off BBQ experience at the Black Smoke restaurant. Our pitmasters tame the flames of fire in their hell's kitchen. It's where they prepare all Yankee-style 'low and slow' BBQ dishes on wood burning smokers and all 'hot and fast' grill classics on a very unique Argentinian parrilla grill. The result? Mouth-wateringly good! Enough with the BS, just come and enjoy yourself!

CULINARY FRIENDS

The line-up of craftsmen that we call our neighbors is top notch! Their culinary influences interlard with our dishes, and yes, their drinks are easily poured. Of course, De Koninck beers run through our bar and through our meals. But we also use meat from Luc De Laet's premium selection at The Butcher's Store. Together with Van Tricht we refine smokey cheese that you won't believe, Jitsk never stops to seduce us with their chocolate, and we serve a very special beer-infused sourdough bread from The Bakery. Great food calls for great tools, so we cut our steaks using only Zwilling knives and we proudly work with the cast iron creations of Staub and pans by Demeyere.
