BRUNCH MENU

For 10 years, BBQ love has burned in our hearts with fire and passion.
This menu is an ode to the past, but above all, to the present. We remain true to tradition, craftsmanship and quality, infused with a generous dose of smoke and fire!

LOW AND SLOW BBQ SPECIALITY PLATTERS

Now we're talking – BBQ magic is here!
Low and slow BBQ is all about special spice rubs, different types of wood, large cuts of meat, and a beast of a wood-fired smoker straight from America. The dishes below are cooked at low temperatures for long periods, sometimes up to 18 hours. The result: an unmatched smoky & juicy BBQ flavor.

Getting hungry? Watch out for the infamous #soldout.
Because of the long cooking times and the limited smoker capacity, our dishes are not endlessly available.

FROM THE WOODFIRED PARRILLA GRILL

Right in the middle of Hell's Kitchen, the custom-built parrilla grill unleashes its untamable sea of flames. This is where the Black Smoke pitmasters master the hot & fast techniques: searing, charring, and grilling the finest steaks, chops, fish, and vegetables. Fueled by wood and charcoal, the flames deliver an authentic grill flavor you simply can't get enough of. Hell never tasted this good before!

True steak lovers keep a close eye on our 'Butcher's Feast' boards.
Outside of this menu, you'll discover which serious steaks are available today.
But be quick—otherwise your neighbor might just claim the cut you were craving.

Enjoy the fire & smoke!

Pitmasters Isabel Rodriguez & Marc Gottenbos,
Captain Kasper Stuart & Pyroculinary adventurer Jord Althuizen.

CULINARY FRIENDS

The line-up of artisans we're proud to call our neighbors and best friends is truly top-notch!
Their culinary influence is woven through our dishes.
Of course, beers from Stadsbrouwerij De Koninck and Duvel flow generously at the bar, while in our kitchen we use premium meats from Luc De Laet's The Butcher's Store and count legendary butchers like Carmans among our closest meat allies.
Together with Van Tricht, we refine unique cheeses, we're tempted by the chocolate and ice creations of Jitsk, and we serve the exceptional beer-infused sourdough from The Bakery by Kenney.

Great food deserves great tools, which is why we love working with the Kamado grills from Kamado Joe.
We also proudly cook with Staub and Demeyere cookware.

Do you have any allergies or dietary requirements we should be aware of?
Please ask your server for the allergen menu.
In case of severe gluten intolerance, kindly inform our staff.
