ORIN SWIFT "8 YEARS IN THE DESERT" - 2021

ZINFANDEL, SYRAH, GRENACHE, PETITE SIRAH | CALIFORNIE, USA

Rated 94 points by Decanter and 92 points by Robert Parker's Wine Advocate. This wine commemorates an eight-year period in the early 2010s when winemaker Dave Phinney was contractually barred from making Zinfandel after selling his famous "The Prisoner" brand. The 2021 vintage marks a triumphant return to the varietal that started it all! Overflowing with ripe, dusty red berry fruit, vanilla-tinged, turning to blueberry and revealing dried spices and a sandalwood touch.

Full-bodied, silky and deeply fruited at first sip, turning to mixed berry compote, balanced by grippy tannins. As an incredibly bold and fruit-forward red blend, it needs rich, flavorful dishes that can stand up to its intensity such as BBQ ribs, brisket, and ribeye; the fat on the meat cuts through the firm tannic structure of the wine.

BARGYLUS - 2013

CABERNET SAUVIGNON, MERLOT, SYRAH | LATAKIA, SYRIA

The most dangerous wine in the world? An absolute must-try for adventurous wine lovers at Black Smoke. The vineyard of the Saade brothers, both hailing from Beyrouth, is situated 900 meters above sea level atop a mountain in northwest Syria. A blend of 60% Syrah, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon, and 20% Merlot forms the basis of this stunning, intense wine. It's currently the only remaining commercial winery in Syria since the outbreak of war in March 2011. "What started as an enterprise has turned into a challenge," say the Saades. Since 2012, they've been remotely managing their vineyards with their local team. The result is astounding, and the estate's wines are found in top restaurants worldwide. Notes of black fruit on the nose, such as blueberries and cherries. In the mouth, ripe black plums with a pleasant freshness and a hint of black pepper.

A wine with great depth and a long finish. A bomb that pairs perfectly with beautifully aged and grilled red meat.

The wine is stunningly dark, almost black, and is made from the best vineyard plots of the Barry family in Clare Valley. It was a groundbreaking wine when first released in 1992 and continues to set the standard for premium South Australian Shiraz to this day. The name Barry has become almost synonymous with the Clare Valley region, and the reputation is continued by son Peter and the third-generation Barry winemakers, Sam, Tom, and Olivia. On the palate, you'll discover swirling notes of cassis, plum and red currant, supported by savory hints of cedarwood, cinnamon and cloves. It has a personality that withstands prolonged cellaring. It boasts a long finish, full of dark spices. We highly recommend this top-rated wine with roasted eggplant, a beautiful piece of red meat from the parrilla, and also with our signature '9 to 1 Brisket'. We always decant this top wine to fully bring out its qualities!

CLOS DU MARQUIS GRAND VIN 2020 - ST JULIEN

CABERNET SAUVIGNON 66%, MERLOT 24%, CABERNET FRANC 9%,
PETIT VERDOT 1% | BORDEAUX, FRANCE

No longer the second wine of Léoville Las Cases! As of 2010, this cru encompasses all the plots that lie outside the walled vineyard of Léoville Las Cases, i.e. the other side of the road. These terroirs are great, as they are surrounded by several 2nd Crus of St Julien and Pauillac. Clos du Marquis is a mighty wine from Hubert Delon, and is much cheaper than his Léoville Las Cases, but is vinified by the same team and with the same techniques. On the nose, this wine expresses intense notes of black fruits (black cherries) and balsamic scents of cedar. The entry in the mouth is dynamic, with a very nice acid support and develops into a powerful mid-palate, structured with elegance but with a tannicity that impresses with its precision. A Clos du Marquis that is astonishing in its power and balance. Superb!

LA PETITE FERME - “BARREL FERMENTED” - 2024

CHARDONNAY | FRANSCHHOEK, SOUTH-AFRICA

A beautiful, distinctive straw-yellow Chardonnay with a firm dose of oak aging. This wine benefits greatly from the high-altitude vineyards and rocky soils, which allow the grapes to ripen slowly. Twelve months of barrel aging give it plenty of character. On the nose, warm notes of browned butter and toasted almonds. On the palate, fresh ripe pineapple and green apple follow. A balanced and complex wine that combines fresh citrus and rich buttery aromas with French oak influence. A standout wine that pairs perfectly with our BBQ chicken dishes.
